Spruce Up Your Sprinkler System and Save

Before planting a beautiful yard this spring,
Remember these four simple irrigation maintenance steps:

- Inspect your irrigation system and sprinkler heads for clogged, broken, or missing sprinkler heads. Better yet, have a certified irrigation professional help you.
- Connect sprinkler heads tightly to pipes and hoses to avoid leaks. A leak as small as 1/32nd of an inch can waste 6,000 gallons of water per month.
- Direct sprinklers away from the driveway, sidewalk, or house to apply water only to the landscape and to prevent water waste. Correct inefficient watering and avoid runoff pollution.
- Select the right setting for your controller. Update your system's schedule with the seasons and time changes.
